NCHHSTP Priorities

- ➊ Reduce Health Disparities
- ➋ Accelerate Program Collaboration and Service Integration (PCSI)
- ➌ Maximize Global Synergies

Reducing Health Disparities

- ➔ Our aim is to improve the health of populations disproportionately affected by HIV/AIDS, viral hepatitis, STDs, and TB and ultimately to help eliminate health disparities.
- ➔ Populations include racial and ethnic minorities, women, incarcerated persons, sexual minorities and other persons disproportionately affected by these diseases and conditions.

PCSI: Program Integration

- ➔ PCSI is a mechanism of organizing and blending inter-related health issues, separate activities, and services in order to maximize public health impact through new and established linkages to facilitate the delivery of services
- ➔ PCSI is focused at the field or client level where the interface between the system and the consumer takes place.

Key Accomplishments:

The image shows a screenshot of the CDC website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Home, About CDC, Press Room, A-Z Index, and Contact Us. Below this is the CDC logo and the text "Department of Health and Human Services Centers for Disease Control and Prevention". A search bar is visible. The main content area is titled "Program Collaboration & Service Integration at NCHHSTP" and includes a "Contact Us" link. A sidebar on the left lists various topics under "NCHHSTP Topics" and "Related Topics". The central focus is a document titled "NCHHSTP External Consultation on Program Collaboration and Service Integration Meeting Report Summary August 21-22, 2007". The document cover features the CDC logo and a colorful graphic of overlapping geometric shapes.
